About Us

Kingwood Center Gardens is a 501c(3) not-for-profit charitable organization whose mission is to create beautiful gardens for enjoyment, education, and inspiration.

The 47-acre garden estate was owned by local business man, Charles Kelley King and includes the historic Kingwood Hall, greenhouse, and gardens.

Mr. King left his estate to a private trust for the explicit creation of a public garden. Kingwood Center Gardens continues to honor Mr. King's vision by creating an oasis in which visitors can play or relax.
